Mr. Auto Owner— Don't Throw Away Your Old Tires

WHY NOT GET FROM 4,000 TO 7,000 MILES MORE OUT OF
YOUR TIRES?

You can do it by having them RECONSTRUCTED and at ONE-FOURTH THE PRICE of a New Tire.

We manufacture our own cement, which is selfvulcanizing, in cementing the casing together.

By our method, we take two old casings (same size), one good tread, can be rim-cut or blow-out around the rim, the other must be a good bead, but tread can be worn to the fabric or have blowout; if blowout we repair it and repair the fabric where needed. We Cement the Good Tread over the Good Bead and sew it, giving you a tire practically puncture and blowout proof, making it Good as New.

PROMPT AND CAREFUL ATTENTION
GIVEN OUT-OF-TOWN ORDERS

ALL WORK GUARANTEED TO GIVE ABSOLUTE SATIS-FACTION. Give us a trial and let us convince you. We save you on an average of 75 per cent, besides giving you a tire better than new.

THEY CHEERED ROACH

St. Louis Democrats Greet Con Roach
With Great Enthusiasm When He Delivers Address There

(Special Correspondence)

St. Louis, July 26—Cornelius Roach, secretary of state and candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, last night addressed two audiences in St. Louis, and was accorded hearty receptions.

It was Roach's first appearance on the stump in St. Louis during his candidacy—and it was his last. He departed for Kansas City at 11 o'clock.

One meeting was in a hall at Eighth street and Franklin avenue, in the Fifth ward, where State Senator Michael Kinney is in control. Roach was given an ovation. He was lauded when introduced by Mort Levy, cheered when he went to the speaker's stand, and as he left the hall the Kinney men crowded about, shaking his hand and shouting "We're on a live one!"

The other meeting was a joint gathering of Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh wards, held in the Euclid theater, Euclid and Easton avenues. It was arranged by "Bob" Coyne. There was a brass band, plenty of speakers and a crowd which jammed the theater.

Enters Theater Unaccompanied

Frank C. O'Malley was chairman and Hickman P. Rodgers, candidate for a circuit judgeship, started the enthusiasm before Roach arrived by making a Wilson speech. When Roach walked into the theater alone he was met with cheers.

He "knocked" none of his opponents, declaring he is running for governor on his record as secretary of state. He cited a report made by a bipartisan committee of the legislature, which employed expert accountants to go over the books of all state departments.

This report, he said, declared that the accounts and the system employed in his office were in such perfect shape that there was no need of any recommendation for improvement.

Roach added that he had not solicited the support of any "charitable, fraternal or religious organization."

"I have made no promises to any one," he said, regarding appointments, "but when I am governor I will appoint Democrats, the good old-fashioned kind, to office. You don't want a demagogue in office; you want a man who will give exact justice to all and special privileges to none."

Old-Time Parade in Fifth

Prior to the Fifth ward meeting the Kinney adherents had a regular old-time Democratic parade. The parade, headed by George Turner's drum corps, filed through the ward with much noise and enthusiasm.

Roach, in his address here, brought forth great applause when he praised the late Thomas E. Kinney, former state senator, who has been succeeded by his brother.

At both meetings Roach pledged himself to "not let the legislature adjourn after I take office until the bills I am in favor of are passed."

He said he was in favor of a budget system, a workmen's compensation act and other "necessary legislation."

A number of Democratic candidates for city offices were present at both meetings and spoke.

CARRIE FOSTER, Administratrix.

By W. H. UTZ, Attorney.

To the Voters of Northwest Missouri:

As the primary draws to an end, I find that I cannot meet each and every one of you, much as I would like to, so I shall have to resort to printers' ink to present my cause to you.

It has been years since Northwest Missouri has been represented officially in any of the state offices at Jefferson City, and the time is ripe for one of your number to be placed there. As a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor on the Democratic ticket, I will ask my fellow Democrats in Northwest Missouri to look up my record, both political and personal. I served two terms as representative in the lower house from the First District of Buchanan County, overcoming a large Republican majority in that district. I am sure I satisfied my constituency, for there has been no opposition, only approbation, in my candidacy for the office I seek. While modesty forbids, still I feel free to state that there has been no opposition from any source in this state to my candidacy, as my life has been free from entanglements and my Democracy unchallenged.

I would like to present my case in person to you and answer any questions that may arise in your mind, but I cannot, and as one of you, a native born Missourian, a co-worker, a firm believer in Democracy, and as a man, I shall appreciate with deep gratitude your support at the polls Tuesday, August 1st. Feeling sure that I will receive consideration at your hands, I remain,

Respectfully yours,

PHILLIP MCCOLLUM.

What's in a Name?

Everything or Nothing—It all depends on what is back of it. Many national advertisers would not take twice the physical valuation of their property for their trade mark. Thousands of dollars' worth of advertising, plus good substantial service to back it up, has made their selling brands priceless.

It is our ambition to make the name—

Rohwedder-Freymann

bear the same relationship to Jewelry as Sterling does to silver.

Service that will do this should appeal to you. We would appreciate an opportunity to demonstrate this brand of service to you.

No matter if others have failed to please you, or cannot carry out your ideas, don't be discouraged. Let Rohwedder show you that there is really satisfaction and service to that name when your wants pertain to Diamonds, Watches or Jewelry.

Truly Yours, O. F. ROHWEDDER
